

Tattooing or Piercing Establishment Guest Artist Form

Montana Administrative Rules allow guest artists to work in licensed body art establishments. The operator, or licensee, remains responsible for the establishment and all other artists working at the establishment, in regard to meeting the requirements of Administrative Rules of Montana Title 37, Chapter 111, subchapter 1.

All artists must be at least 18 years of age. If the artist stays with the establishment for more than 60 days, the artist is no longer considered a guest. In this case, the operator must provide documentation of training on blood-borne pathogen prevention and first aid, as well as successfully pass the general sanitation quiz within 60 days. If the artist stays less than 60 days, please provide the following information:
